

Christ Community Church Missions Purpose Statement

CCC believes that one of its primary responsibilities is to fulfill the Great Commission and support it through the CCC missions program. The church supports and prays for missionaries from many different sending agencies. The church encourages those from its own church family to become missionaries. CCC particularly hopes to support those who are seeking to serve the most needy and unreached (both at home in our university community and abroad) in a sustainable and transformative manner that holistically works toward the long-term development of the local church.

Becoming a sending church requires a commitment to prayer. Therefore, we “ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest field.” (Matt. 9:36-38)

I. Definition and purpose

A. Definition of missions: “Missions” is defined by Christ Community Church as those ministries outside the local congregation for:

1. Evangelism: fulfilling the Great Commission (Matt. 28:19,20)
2. Discipleship: nurturing and training the members of the Body of Christ (Eph. 4:12-16)
3. Expressing Christ’s love through meeting human needs (Matt. 10:42)

B. Scriptural purpose

1. To fulfill the Great Commission (Matt. 28:19,20)
2. To bring people to the knowledge of God and salvation (John 3:16, 17:3; Acts 1:8; Romans 10:13-15)
3. To express Christ’s love for the world (Matt. 9:36-38; 18:10-14)
4. To build up the body of Christ around the world through discipling (Eph. 4:12-16)
5. To minister to the totality of human need (Matt. 10:42; Mark 9:41)

C. Missions Committee purpose

The Missions Committee shall supervise the missions program of the church. The Missions Committee shall:

1. Develop an annual missions budget
2. Plan an annual missions focus
3. Maintain contact with missionaries and other Christian workers supported by the church
4. Foster missionary concern and involvement in the church

II. Selection of a missionary for support

A. Whom will we send?

1. People who exhibit servanthood and holiness

Revised September 2023

2. Those who exhibit cultural intelligence and sensitivity
3. Those working in partnership with a strong mission board or governing organization, providing accountability, support and teamwork
4. People who have clear goals and well-thought out strategies for accomplishing those goals

B. Where will we send them?

1. To minister in a university or educational context. This will be limited to:
 - a. Institutional and faculty support for evangelical schools outside the U.S.
 - b. Individual support for faculty at schools outside the U.S. lacking an evangelical presence
 - c. Individual support for campus ministry at schools in Bloomington and outside the U.S.
 - d. Providing resources for church planting in university communities lacking an evangelical presence
2. To minister to the international community in Bloomington
3. To minister to people groups and/or communities in extreme physical/material poverty. This will be limited to:
 - a. Urban and rural development in the U.S. and overseas
 - b. Refugee support through institutions and individuals
4. To minister to people groups with little or no access to a local evangelical church, with the goal of church-planting

C. How will they serve?

1. Holistically: Reaching out to individuals and communities with the whole gospel in both word and deed
2. Targeting self-sustaining solutions: Honoring the dignity and giftedness of those being served by encouraging their insight and active participation in the process of improving their own situation
3. Towards lasting change: Seeking transformation and development that will have a long-term impact upon people and communities
4. Building the Church: Committed to building, establishing, and/or working in cooperation with the local church
5. Together with CCC: Committed to building a long-term relationship and partnership with our church - not just funding

D. Criteria for support

1. Has a personal faith that Jesus Christ is Lord of his or her life
2. Agrees with the CCC Statement of Faith
3. Shows evidence of maturity and spiritual growth

4. Has been active in the ministries and body life of CCC or another evangelical church for at least the last three (3) years
 5. Is under the supervision of a mission agency or sending agency:
 - a. A doctrinal statement from the agency must be in agreement with the CCC Statement of Faith.
 - b. The agency should be a member of Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) (<http://www.ECFA.org>) or an equivalently accountable organization and should be sound and open in its financial policies and practices, should operate under clearly defined and generally accepted principles, and should demonstrate good management.
 6. Has a written personal recommendation from CCC (an elder, a pastor, or a member of the Missions Committee) or a pastor from their home church and from the candidate's sending agency
- E. Application and approval procedure for long-term support
- The procedure by which CCC approves career missionaries for support is:
1. A letter of application for support must be completed by July 1 to be considered for the upcoming calendar year.
 2. The missionary candidate shall be interviewed by the Missions Committee.
 3. The Missions Committee will present a letter to the Board of Elders listing the candidates' names, which have been approved for support.
 4. On behalf of the Missions Committee, the Board of Elders will submit approved candidate(s) to the congregation at the annual congregational budget meeting.
 5. Copies of the letters of application and recommendations will be maintained by the Missions Committee.
 6. Final approval of support for new missionaries is contingent upon adequate pledge support for the proposed missions budget.
- F. Application and approval procedure for short-term and/or summer missionaries
- "Short-term" is defined as not more than two years.
1. The same criteria will be used in selecting short-term missionaries as is used in Section II D (except for No. 4).
 2. The candidate should be active in CCC's ministry.
 3. If under the age of 18, the candidate must provide written parental consent.
 4. Application should be made to the Missions Committee not less than six (6) weeks, and preferably three (3) months in advance of the candidate's proposed departure.
 5. Approval for short-term or summer missionaries will be made by the Missions Committee.
 6. Priority will be given to candidates seeking a first-time missions experience.

III. Yearly evaluation of missionaries

- A. The purpose of the evaluation is to review the:
 - 1. Ministry and the spiritual, physical, and financial needs of the missionary
 - 2. Progress and goals of the missionary and any anticipated changes
 - 3. Major changes in ministry or mission sending agency (a change in sending agency requires a review by the CCC Missions Committee)
- B. Each missionary will be sent an annual report form by September 1 of each year.
- C. The report must be returned to CCC by November 1.
- D. Failure to return the report by November 1 will prevent the Missions Committee from evaluating additional support for the upcoming year.
- E. Failure to return two consecutive annual reports will cause re-evaluation for support.
- F. Missionaries on furlough:
 - 1. Are to follow the same procedure for the report
 - 2. Are encouraged to visit CCC and to give an oral report to the church

IV. Financial policies

- A. Income for missions budget
 - 1. The funds for missions will come primarily from the pledges made during the CCC fall missions focus.
 - 2. The Missions Committee will be responsible to develop and coordinate the missions budget.
 - 3. The Missions Committee has an ongoing responsibility to clarify the methodology of giving to missions and to encourage missions giving throughout the congregation.
- B. Distribution of the missions budget

The missions budget is to be allocated between international, national, and local ministries at the discretion of the Missions Committee with approval from the congregation.
- C. Preparation and approval of the missions budget
 - 1. The Missions Committee will review the needs of supported missionaries on an individual basis as can be determined from the yearly reports, newsletters, and personal letters.
 - 2. The Missions Committee will review all applications for CCC support.
 - 3. The Missions Committee will review the budget and will investigate new areas of need as part of the budget preparation.
 - 4. The Missions Committee will prepare a proposed budget for the consideration of the Board of Elders before the December congregational meeting.
 - 5. The missions budget will be presented to the congregation for approval at the annual congregational meeting called for such purpose.
 - 6. Revisions to the budget may be proposed by the Missions Committee during the year if funds or needs warrant such revisions

7. Suggested changes to the missions budget amounts should be brought to the attention of the Missions Committee, for the Committee's consideration, at least one month before the congregational meeting. If new applicants are to be considered, this should be presented to the Committee by July 1 so that the Committee can determine if the applicant for support has met the criteria in the Missions Policy Statement.

D. Special expenses of missionaries

The church will consider assisting missionaries with special expenses by:

1. Alerting the congregation about the need
2. Accepting a special congregational offering
3. Encouraging a special group within the church such as a youth group or a Sunday School class to undertake these expenses as a special one-time project
4. Providing an extra one-time contribution from the missions budget or from other sources

E. CCC does not provide support for retired missionaries.

F. Designated giving

1. CCC does not accept designated gifts to individuals or organizations that are not included in the missions budget unless there is a special appeal approved by the Missions Committee.
2. CCC does not accept personal (non-monetary) gifts for missionaries. Gifts must be sent by the donor directly to the mission agency or missionary.

G. Bequests or large one-time gifts

Bequests or large one-time gifts consistent with the missions program will be accepted and disbursed by the Missions Committee based on present needs.

H. Surplus funds

Surplus funds are general missions funds on hand above the budgeted amount during or at the end of a calendar year. These funds will be disbursed by the Missions Committee based on present needs or placed in a savings account for special needs.

I. Funds shortage policy

Should a shortage of missions funds occur, the Missions Committee will discuss the situation with the Elders to determine whether other funds may be available and will inform the congregation as to the amount of the budget deficiency. If funds are insufficient to meet monthly commitments, the following priorities will apply:

1. Reduce the cost of developing, coordinating, and administering the missions program where feasible
2. Do not approve any new projects
3. Reduce the support to local and U.S.-based missionaries
4. Reduce the support to non-U.S.-based missionaries

V. Re-evaluation of support

- A. Support may be terminated for causes such as change of assignment or agency affiliation, deviation from CCC Statement of Faith, incompetence, moral problems, marriage to a non-Christian, or failure to fulfill responsibility to CCC.
- B. Support may be terminated if a missionary no longer meets the criteria for support as specified in Section II (Selection of a missionary for support).
- C. Support will be terminated as of the effective date of the resignation of the missionary or the beginning date of a leave of absence or in conjunction with the time element recommended by the sending agency.
- D. Support will be re-evaluated if the missionary's support is above his/her agency's support quota or if he/she begins employment.
- E. Continuation of support for an extended or emergency furlough will be determined on an individual basis by the Missions Committee.
